

welcome to fall!

PREPARE YOUR PORCH FOR AUTUMN
CELEBRATIONS WITH IDEAS AND ADVICE FROM THREE LOCAL DESIGNERS

PHOTOGRAPHY: RETT PEEK

CHEERFUL, WARM & ECLECTIC

DESIGNER:
KATHRYN J. LEMASTER

Owner and Principal Designer at Kathryn J. LeMaster Art & Design

Her Fall Décor Philosophy:

Fall is my absolute favorite time of the year! There's just enough of a crisp chill in the air that I think spaces should feel extra warm and inviting. Your décor for this season should welcome everyone with comfort—like a big hug! My favorite way to achieve this vibe is to add some handmade elements.

What She Did:

I created burlap ribbon wraps for the pumpkins and made a burlap-and-twine, pennant-like banner; this adds the handmade touch I love for fall. I accessorized with Kantha quilts and pillows that were handmade from recycled Indian saris and added rugs to “warm up” the floors—just as you would inside your home. I also added a ton of pumpkins because they are so iconic of the season and seem to say “fall is here.”

How This Look Matches Her Everyday Style:

I think the common denominator between my everyday style and seasonal style is livability. My look is always inviting, never too perfect, and there's usually a playful touch of whimsy.

Special thanks to Arkansas Yoga Collective (arkansasyogacollective.com) for use of their Kantha quilts and pillows and Cynthia East Fabrics (cynthiaeastfabrics.com) for use of the area rugs. Learn more about Kathryn and see her work at kathrynjlemaster.com.